Lost and Found Policy

Policy Statement

This Policy is to guide all members of Southeastern Louisiana University of the procedures to handle, recover, return, and dispose of lost and found property.

Purpose of Policy

The Lost and Found Policy is intended to ensure that items reported lost or found on Southeastern Louisiana University's main campus, satellite campuses, or properties controlled, owned or leased are properly accounted for.

Applicability

This policy will apply to all items found and turned in to the Southeastern Louisiana University Police Department where the owner is unknown.

The University assumes no responsibility for the care and/or protection of any personal belonging left unattended on university property, and for the loss of said property. The University Police located at 1301 SGA Drive, Pride Hall has been designated as the central repository and controlling agency responsible for storing, managing, returning, and disposing of lost and found property for the university. All items found should be turned in to the University Police Department as soon as possible so the rightful owner may be identified and contacted for retrieval.
